

Our NGL team went for an adventurous trek to Kondana Caves. The 16 Buddhist caves which date back to 1st century B.C are located amidst thick trees & steep waterfalls on top of a hill.

We started the trek early in the morning in pitch darkness and successfully completed the trek after a strenuous climb uphill and ended with beautiful photos of the glorious scenery.

This place stands true to the popular saying "the journey is far more exciting than the destination".